AT NEW WESTMINSTER.

EXHIBITION OPENED AND REGATTA HELD.

Victoria Won the Four-Oar Race—Single Scull Contests—The Matched Pairs—A Fine Lot of Exhibits at the Fair—Formal Opening.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 23.—The Westminster fair was formally opened by the Lieutenant-Governor at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The weather was fine, and a large crowd was present. The exhibits were extensive and in every respect excellent, particularly in the line of fruits, vegetables and stock. The fruit exhibit is especially fine as to apples, pears and plums. Of these fruits no finer are raised anywhere. The exhibit of grapes is small but creditable. Canned fruits have the appearance of being over the average. Chilliwack honey, bottled and in the comb, is one of the features of the fair. The vegetable exhibit, from string beans to potatoes, is unsurpassable. Squash 100 pounds and over greet the eye, and in addition immense cauliflowers, gigantic beets of the long and globe varieties. The exhibits of red and winter cabbage and tomatoes, are on a par with the rest of the show. Of fish the largest specimen is a ten foot sturgeon. The hall exhibit is large and varied, as is also the fancy work. The exhibit of sash, blind and cabinet work is first class. The Brunnette mills show a solid block of spruce 49 x 47 inches, together with a plank of native cedar 45 inches wide. Spratt & Gray, of Victoria, are well represented, but it is impossible to specialize as to machinery at this writing. The photographic exhibit is not extensive, but is well selected, and this brings us to the painters' corner. Of works of art in this line "Job driving furiously" and "Job's turkey; a suggestion from the nude," are conspicuous features, besides which there are scenes on the Fraser river which are excellent in their line. The engravings are not extensive, but like the photographs are well selected. Last, but not least, the mineral exhibit from West Kootenay by J. M. Kellie, M.P.P., is a magnificent exhibit, both in point of extensiveness and quality.

THE REGATTA.

The regatta came off this morning with magnificent weather, a smooth course and everything favorable. At an early hour the docks were jammed with crowds, and scows, steamers, barges, etc., were loaded down with spectators. It was a gay scene. The Lieut.-Governor, the Mayor and Mrs. Brown, with a large party of distinguished people, occupied seats at the rowing club house.

The first event called was the junior sculls, course a mile and a half, straightaway, from the head of Lulu Island to the rowing club house. First, J. Buck, Westminster R. C.; second, R. Williams, Vancouver. Time, 13 minutes 17 seconds. This was a very good race.

The next event was the double scull, professional, purse $200, between McLean and Murray, of Westminster, and Dignan and Martin, halfbreeds from Gabriola Island; distance 3 miles. The Westminster boat got away well, pulling 34 to the minute, the halfbreeds pulling 27. The whites maintained the same speed till near the turning buoy, when the shoulder of McLean's oar jammed, and they stopped. The halfbreeds put on a terrific spurt, closed up the gap and turned the buoy first. Mac fixed his oar quickly and then settled down to real hard work, pulling in grand style. They overhauled the others and soon passed them. The halfbreeds were steering wildly, evidently excited. The two boats were about six lengths apart all the way to the finish, McLean and Murray winning. Time 23 min. 14 and one-fifth seconds.

The Indian 15-paddle canoe race came next. There were two entries, from Sechelt and Warnock. Distance one mile and a half. Oarsman Stephenson waited down at the stake boat while the referee's boat was up stream. Stephenson dropped his hat when all was ready, and Hanlan, who was referee and starter, fired the starting shot. The race was the most exciting and amusing seen here for a long time. After a tight struggle Warnock won by half a canoe length.

VICTORIA WINS.

The next was the four-oar race, with two entries, Victoria and Vancouver. Distance, one mile and a half, start by mutual consent, the referee's boat being up the course. The boats got away well together, Vancouver having the inside course. The Victorias rowed a clean steady stroke, all beautifully together, 42 strokes to the minute, the Vancouvers pulling 38 to the minute and apparently working hard. The Victorias steadily pulled ahead, maintaining the same stroke. The Vancouver crew seemed to to go to pieces at half the distance, rowing raggedly, and although they had a lighter and better boat they could not decrease the Victorians' lead. The wildest excitement prevailed and cheers rent the air for Victoria, whose steadiness was the admiration of all. The steamer Irving came out from the dock right in front of the Victorians and tore up the water fearfully, nearly swamping the Victorians' boat. A howl of execration arose from the thousands on the wharves. The Victorias gallantly held on their way, although drenched to the skin, and won amid deafening cheers and the waving of handkerchiefs, in the very good time of 27 minutes 3-5th seconds, seven lengths ahead of their opponents.

The Indian 10-paddle race, started at the same time as the fours, was won by the Fraser River Indians by 100 yards.

SENIOR SINGLES.

The senior single scull race was then called; five entries, one mile and a-half. The entries were: Geo. Watson, Victoria; R. Johnston, Burrard Inlet Rowing Club, Vancouver; A. Henderson, ditto; J. Buck, Westminster Rowing Club; R. Williams, halfbreed (in a dugout). The relative positions of the men from the inside course were: Johnston, Buck, Williams, Watson, Henderson. It was a splendid start. Johnston led at once, closely followed by Buck. The latter dropped out half way, and also Williams. Johnston increased his lead steadily. Henderson began to pull in from the outside and press the leader. Watson kept dropping back. Henderson pushed Johnston gallantly to the finish, coming in only three lengths behind. Time 12 33 4-5.

This finished the aquatic sports.

THE OFFICIAL PROCESSION

then took place to Queen's Park. It was made up of the police, militia, firemen and non-coms of the yacht St. George, fire department, and carriages. The first carriage contained His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Nelson, Hon. John Robson, Mayor Brown and George Corbould, M. P., and all the notables in the city were in the other carriages. There were four brass bands. The procession passed up Columbia street, which was lined with thousands of people and gaily decked with bunting and evergreens. At Albert Crescent His Honor formally declared the Crescent open.

The exhibition was opened by the Lieutenant-Governor in the building at 2.30. He made a neat little speech dwelling on New Westminster's phenomenal growth, and highly complimenting the city. Mr. Robson, Mr. Corbould, Mayor Brown, Judge Bole and others also spoke.

The amateur athletic sports have started and are now in progress.

SIR EDWIN ARNOLD.

The English Poet—Author of "The Light of Asia."

Edwin Arnold was born June 10, 1832, was educated at King's College, London, and University College, Oxford, where he graduated in 1854. He became Principal of the Government Sanskrit College at Poonah, India, and Fellow of the University of Bombay, remaining through the Sepoy mutiny of 1857 and resigning his post in 1861. He subsequently became conductor of the London Daily Telegraph, for which journal he is said to have written some 3000 editorials. He is the author of a number of works. "The Light of Asia," by which he is best known, is a poem on the life and doctrines of Gautama Buddha, the supposed founder of the Buddhistic religion. This work, considered simply as a poem, possesses many claims upon our admiration, but it does not give a just idea of the spirit of that religion. The author did not feel called upon to confine himself within the statements of the Buddhistic authorities, and this total freedom from restraint has unquestionably been favorable to the production of a pleasing and beautiful poem. Sir Edwin Arnold was knighted by Queen Victoria, and will pay his second visit to the United States within the next few weeks for a lecturing tour. He has been twice a widower. His second wife was an American, a niece of Dr. Channing, of Boston. Sir Edwin Arnold is of medium height, of rather swarthy complexion and is master of ten dead and living languages.

EMEUTE AT SANTIAGO.

CHILIAN VOLUNTEERS RAISE A DISTURBANCE.

Many Grievances to be Redressed—An Exciting Time in the City—The Junta Officials Succeed in Restoring Order by Promising Relief.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—A special cable to the Herald from Santiago, Chili (via Galveston) says: The emeute among the troops of the Junta in this city, about which I cabled yesterday, and which was caused by indulgence in liquor, was a trivial matter compared to the revolt that broke out at noon to-day. The latter included a large number of soldiers of the provisional government stationed here, and many volunteers from Tarapaca and other northern provinces of Chili. For some time these volunteers, many of whom were drawn to the service of the Junta by the hope of plunder in the southern provinces, have been very restless under the law and order restraint that has followed the occupation of this city by the Junta. The state of lawlessness which had been smouldering in the ranks broke out to-day. As Senor Mondeda at noon was walking through one of the main thoroughfares, he was suddenly surrounded by an infuriated mob of soldiers from the northern provinces. They made a great outcry against what they denounced as the injustice of keeping them any longer in Santiago and demanded with many threats that measures should be at once taken to return them to their homes. Among other matters which came in for their their denunciation was the food which had been furnished them. They protested that its quality was of an inferior kind and they declared that they would no longer submit to it. As a consequence of this turbulence of the volunteers, Santiago, which had not yet recovered from the excitement caused by Balmaceda's suicide, was again thrown into high fever. The news spread quickly all over the city and as it traveled through one street after another the startling intelligence was followed by the closing up of all the shops. To what extent the disaffection would have spread it is impossible to say, but further trouble was happily averted, at least for the time being, by the clear judgment and cool bearing of the Junta, Jorge Montt and Col Canto. Their firmness, coupled with promises to the angry soldiers that their grievances would be attended to, served to allay the spirit of rebellion. Their promises were not made in any mere conciliatory manner. The movement to return the discontented volunteers to their homes will be begun to-morrow. Three batallions are to be sent northward by steamer to Iquique and to other ports. I had a long talk to-day with Senor Edwards Matte, who is one of the leaders of the Congressionalists. He said that the junta was not disposed to indulge in any harshness. It preferred, on the contrary, to show the world that the revolution has gained all the objects desired. The junta would not permit the name of its leaders to be stained by any act of vindictiveness. Decrees have been issued ordering the local authorities in all the provinces to conduct the coming elections without pressing anyone into voting, or without resorting in any way to coercion.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Haggart Denies the Section B Charges—Davies' Great Speech.

[Special to the Times.]

OTTAWA, Sept. 23.—The speech of Mr. Davies on the Langevin case in the House last evening will certainly go down to history as the best deliverance in a debate which will remain memorable while the Dominion lasts. He spoke for over two hours and a half, reviewing the whole case in a judicial spirit. He stated that while he was unwilling to pronounce Langevin guilty, he could not say "not guilty," and therefore would give him the benefit of the Scotch verdict, "not proven." In his peroration he pictured the evil the scandals had done the Dominion all over the world, making its name a byword and a reproach which brought blush to the cheek of every true Canadian.

In the House this afternoon Mr. Haggart made a statement denying that he had any interest in the section "B," Canadian Pacific Railway contract. All that he did was to get about $1500 for railway fare and expenses during six years, for arranging some difficulties for men with whom he was interested in other business. Sir John Thompson moved against granting a committee. Mr. Laurier and Mr. Mills followed, arguing for a committee. Mr. McCarthy spoke against granting a committee. The debate is still going on.

The Oklahoma Rush.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 23.—Simultaneous with the arrival of the hour of noon, the homeseekers gathered on the border and made a headlong rush over the line into the coveted country on to the quarter section upon which their eyes had been feasting, some for days and others for weeks and months. The rush was a wild one and was made more so by the fact that the number of home-seekers greatly exceeded the number of quartersections available for settlement.

There is room in the opened Indian lands for about 5000 settlers, allowing 160 acres for each. There were on the border, waiting to claim land, fully 15,000 people, so that there were three people for each quarter section. It was no wonder then that the rush was wild in the extreme. The like scenes were never witnessed before, except in Oklahoma, two years ago, and a bad outbreak may be looked for.

Murder and Suicide.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Crazed with jealousy and drink, Oscar Gunderman a laborer, blew out the brains of his wife with a revolver this morning at home on the North Side, and then ended his own life in the same manner. The couple had been living together unhappily for some time, because of the husband's cruelty. Mrs. Gunderman had had him arrested and held in bonds to keep the peace. This is thought to be the cause of the tragedy.

A Sweeping Tornado in Dakota.

GARY, S.D., Sept. 22.—The news has just reached here that a tornado has struck the northern part of Duel county, S.D., and passed into Minnesota, unroofing buildings, blowing down barns, and scattering grain sacks.

Prairie Fire in Dakota.

MANDAN, S.D., Sept. 22.—The fire which swept over the Sioux reservation on Saturday, proves to have burned everything in the shape of hay and wheat in stacks in the range from the Cannon Ball river to the Moreau river.

LICENSING COURT.

Standard Theatre License a Subject of Discussion—Refused Transfer.

With Mayor Grant presiding, a sitting of the Licensing Court was held at the City Hall at 12 o'clock to-day. Messrs. A. L. Belyea, Police Magistrate, Ald. Jos. Hunter, and Robt. Ward, J.P., occupied seats on the bench.

The first business was the transfer of the license from J. Carpenter to Brown & Mineau. A temporary permit was issued, the formal transfer to be laid over until next meeting of the court to allow of the legal time notice being given.

An application for the transfer of the license of the Gordon Hotel from Chas. Brewster to R. J. Ferguson, was made by Mr. J. J. Austin. Matter was laid over until the next sitting of the court, to allow of a fresh application being made.

The application of Mrs. Bertha Hemans for the transfer of the license of the Standard Theatre to John Cort came up next. Mr. S. Perry Mills appeard for applicant, and brought before the notice of the court several petitions and documents certifying to the fitness of Mr. Cort to hold the license. Said documents were signed by the police commissioners, chief of police, city clerk, sheriff, judges of the superior court, Senator Lewis, and several other public officers of Seattle. Mr. Mills pointed out that no complaints of moment had ever been made against Mr. Cort's fitness to hold a license, and asked the court to consider the claims made and act according to the evidence shown.

Mr. Ward said he did not think it necessary to repeat the objections made by him at a previous meeting of the court, and he was still opposed to granting the license. Looking at the certificates of character put in, he thought that the said certificates showed that Mr. Cort had a very close relationship with police and court authorities.

Mr. H. G. Hall, in opposing the license, said that the manner in which the theatre had been conducted since controlled by Mr. Cort was a standing disgrace to the city of Victoria. He could prove that girls were there engaged in selling liquors.

Mayor Grant was not aware that Mr. Hall had any status in the court in the case as it was a transfer and not an application for a new license, but after looking more closely to the law he decided that Mr. Hall had a right to appear. The Mayor also drew attention to the fact that every license asked for before the court for four years had been opposed by Mr. Hall, who certainly had a right to do so. The Mayor did not think, however, that there had ever been any complaints proven as to the place under discussion. He found no substantiation of the complaints made, and personal observation had failed to disclose that it was a disgraceful place. If such proof could be given he would be the first to help drive the evil out. He was bound to believe the indorsements of the gentlemen of Seattle, and as no proof had been placed before the court that Mr. Cort was not a proper person to hold a license, he should state at once that he had no objection to granting the transfer asked for.

Mr. Mills pointed out that these general charges made, but not supported by evidence, should not be considered by the court.

Mr. Ward held that Mr. Mills was trying to take up the time of the court. This court had the power to deal without evidence.

Mr. Mills held that evidence of the sort stated should not be listened to.

It was shown that certain complaints had been made, but the cause of the complaints had been removed.

Alderman Hunter said from his personal knowledge of the place that it was not a proper place to be in the moral city of Victoria. He should not take into consideration the fact of testimonials at all, but use his own judgment.

Mr. Belyea echoed Alderman Hunter's remarks, adding that while he had no objection to the theatre, he did not think it necessary to sell liquors there, and he should vote against the application.

Mr. Mills called the attention of the chairman to the fact that he objected to the constitution of the court. Objection noted.

Mr. Hall then asked if this did not effectually annul the license held by Mrs. Hemans.

He was told it did not. That license was still valid. The only way in which the license could be dealt with was to make a specific charge.

A formal charge was then put in by Mr. Hall on behalf of the W. C. T. U., but it was held by the court that a special sitting of the court must be held to consider this.

Mayor Grant then formally announced that the application was refused.

An application was made for the transfer of the license of the Brown Jug saloon from Mrs. Couves to M. Powers. The application was granted.

The court then adjourned.

EUROPEAN GOSSIP.

Talk of War—A Useful Sovereign—Russia and the Sects.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—A specialist at Dantzic has been arrested for saying that King Otto, the crazy sovereign of Bavaria, was the most useful monarch in Europe, because he spends his time peeling potatoes. The remark was considered a reflection on the Kaiser and other German princes, not one of whom is conspicuous for anything but good living. The police are more than ever severe in punishing any word of disrespect for the Kaiser and in Berlin yesterday two men were warned in the street to stop laughing and talking about the Kaiser's beard. Visitors have been forbidden to come within a certain distance of royalty, while picnicing or outing in the vicinity of Potsdam. These orders have been issued in deference to the Empress, who claims to have been annoyed by inquisitive visitors watching her lunch and possibly commenting on her healthy appetite. In future no one must look at royalty except when it chooses to go on exhibition.

WARLIKE UTTERANCES.

A Paris dispatch says the warlike utterances of the Grand Duke of Baden, have produced very little effect there, the French being already convinced that the Kaiser and his confidants are for war whenever they can find a pretext. There is thorough satisfaction with the condition of the French army, and its ability to cope with any force.

THE RUSSIAN ARMY.

Gen Mirl o lch, who is in command of the 15th army corps at Warsaw, and is in charge of the Russian army manœuvres in Poland, has issued an order for the immediate arrest of any person endeavoring to witness manœuvres without a passport from himself, and he is said to keep out all foreigners and newspaper correspondents. The behaviour of the Russian troops under fire of smokeless powder, about which much curiosity is felt in military circles, is therefore not likely to be known. The Russian government is straining every nerve to keep the army sufficiently supplied with food and thereby prevent discontent among the troops. It is said the garrison at Kharkoff was on half rations during ten days of the month owing to the failure of the supply department to do its duty. The responsible officer was degraded in rank.

THE RUSSIAN STUNDESSTS.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says the Russian authorities are preparing for a crusade against the non-orthodox sects, which have been gaining in numbers to such a degree as to alarm the Holy Synod. It is proposed to adopt hard labor and banishment to the remotest parts of Siberia as a punishment for enticing orthodox Russians from the rites and ordinances of the established church. Dissenters are to be ineligible to any post or employment connected with village administration, and are not to be allowed to employ as domestics any one belonging to the orthodox faith. Committees of the Stundesst are to be subject to police supervision and it is made the duty of the police to see that no orthodox person joins in the Stundesst worship. Unlike the Jews the Stundlist are not to be driven out of Russia. The Czar wants them and is trying to convert them.

PRINCE ALFRED.

A Berlin dispatch mentions the fact that Prince Alfred, son of the Duke and Dutchess of Edinburgh, the later being a sister of the Czar, is doing active service for the first time, as a Lieutenant of the 95th regiment, recruited from the Duchy of Saxe-Cobourg. The young man is only about 17 years of age and is said to prefer his Anglo-German to his Russian connections. He was cordially treated by the Kaiser after the review at Cassa.

SPAIN NOT IN IT.

The report that Spain contemplates joining Russia and France in the entente against the rest of the world is semi-officially denied at Madrid.

A German Sensation.

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—Army and society circles are agitated by a sad tragedy, which has revealed a scandal with unusually painful features. The young Baroness von Kreisewitz, a beautiful and popular lady, well known in high social circles in all cities of the Empire, has committed suicide, as the result of an unhappy love affair with an officer of the Golgan garrison. Yesterday a lady deeply veiled called at the quarters of the officer in question and knocked at the door. She was refused admission, but persisted, declaring that her business was of the deepest importance. The servant bore her message to his master, but returned with the announcement that the officer still declined an interview. The door was at the same time shut in her face. Instantly the lady drew a revolver and shot herself through the head, falling dead upon the threshold. There the body lay, none inside the quarters paying any attention to the affair till the police discovered and removed the corpse. The unknown woman was later identified by a relative as the baroness.

Situation in Hawaii.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Advices from Hawaii state that there is no present danger of revolution there, although the resources and temper of the people are undergoing a severe test, owing to the low price of sugar. There is some talk, although not a great deal, of a republic or annexation to the United States. The queen is personally popular, a fact which has a tendency to keep down discontent, and suppress any fundamental change in the system of government, until after her death. Nevertheless some foreign residents think that a crisis may come at any time. Americans are not alone in favoring union to the United States, many of the natives being of the same view.

French Three Per Cents.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The Times announces that the French government has consented that the Credit Foncier call a meeting of the syndicate and announce the issue, at the end of October, of 3 per cent. stock without conversion. The Credit Foncier, according to the Times, reserves the right to negotiate the price. Contract dealings continue on the Paris bourse at from 1 to 1¼ per cent. premium.

Bismarck in the Reichstag.

BERLIN, Sept. 22.—The report that Bismarck did not intend to go to the reichstag is not correct. The prince will be present whenever any measure in which he is interested may be under consideration, and his voice will be heard against any measure to which he is seriously opposed. So much the prince has himself admitted.

English Admiralty and Press.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The First Lord of the Admiralty has written to a correspondent, justifying the permission given to French officers to inspect English defences and arsenals, on the ground that it would remove the false impression of England's strength created by the depreciatory tone of the English press.

Germans Fighting in Africa.

BERLIN, Sept. 22.—The Tagblatt today publishes a dispatch from Zanzibar, saying Commander Kreuzter with a detachment of German colonial forces, and a force of picked Zulus, has started for that portion of the interior where the Wadigos uprising occurred.

That tired feeling now so often heard of, is entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives mental and bodily strength.

Fall Salmon in the Columbia.

PORTLAND, Sept. 22.—Fishermen report a large run of the variety of fall salmon known as "matutes" or "tules," in the Columbia. Boats in a night's drift take thirty to forty of these fish, which average about twenty pounds each. A cannery or two will start up to pack these fish which, while not so fat as the chinook, are very good. The steelheads and silver sides will soon begin running. Preparations are being made for the sturgeon fishing season. More men are intending to engage in this business than ever before, if the price is at all satisfactory. Messrs. Wallace, at Kalama, have built a big new freezer on the wharf at that place, and expect to handle a large amount of sturgeon. They have their establishment so arranged that the fish are taken from the water on one side and put into the cars on the other side.

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO

There settled in Baker county, Oregon, near what is now Baker City, a man who has since become identified with the resources and development of that country. This man is no other than Mr. John Stewart, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens in the county. In a recent letter he says: "I had been suffering from pains in my back and general kidney complaint for some time, and had used many remedies without any but temporary relief. The pains in my back had become so severe that I was prevented from attending to my work and could not move about without the use of a cane. Hearing through a friend, of the wonderful cures effected by Oregon Kidney Tea, I was induced to try a box, and from that very first dose I found instant relief, and before using half the contents of the box the pains in my back entirely disappeared. I have every faith in the virtues of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and can conscientiously recommend it to my friends. I would not be without it for anything."

Oregon Kidney Tea cures backache, incontinence of urine, brick dust sediment, burning or painful sensation while urinating, and all affections of the kidneys or urinary organs of either sex.

"PUNCH" TREATS OF OTTAWA.

In a recent number of Punch appears a cartoon by Tenniel on the Ottawa scandal, and explanatory verses appear along with the cartoon. Miss Canada is depicted sitting in a canoe in a swamp, holding up an electric search light, by which a number of horrid monsters are shown lying in the way of her bark. These are labelled "Testimonials," "Blackmail," "Bribery," "Tips," "Corruption," etc. The verses are headed "A Song of Sincere Sympathy," and are as follows:—

In dark fens of the Dismal Swamp
The Search-Light sends its ray!
What is that hideous cozy tramp!
What creatures crawling under jungle damp
Scuttle from light away!

Revealing radiance shine, oh shine,
Through black bayou and brake,
Where knotted parasites festertwine,
And through the tangles of poisonous vine
Glideth the spotted snake,

Where hardly a human foot would pass,
Or an honest heart would dare
The quaking mud of the foul morass,
With rank weed choked, and with clotted grass,
Fit for a reptile's lair.

They dread the light, do those dismal things,
Its gleam they care not face,
Their snaky writhings, their bat-like wings,
Their quaking menace of fangs and stings
Make horror of the place.

All things should be so bright and fair
In a land so glad and free;
But the Search-Light layeth dark secrets bare,
And there have loathsomeness builds a lair
In a land of Liberty.

Push on, brave bearer of piercing Light,
Through pestiferous gloom,
Where crawls the spawn of Corruption's night!
Deal out, stout searcher, to left and right,
The cleansing strokes of doom.

That fair lithe form in that fleet frail bark
Is a comely Nemesis,
Before whose menace 'tis good to mark
The reptile dwellers in dens so dark
Driven with growl and hiss.

The marine bugs and the lizard slow,
Foul shapes of ruthless greed,
And the stealthy snake of the sudden blow,
All owl-like shrink from the Search-Light's glow,
Or fly with felon speed.

Corruption's spawn must be chased and slain
Or surged from the wholesome earth.
It clingeth like the curse of Cain,
Smite, smite like flail upon garnered grain,
These things of bestial birth.

Instead of taking Punch's good advice, the majority at Ottawa is trifling with the unclean animals and white-washing their patrons.

THE SUGAR DUTY.

The Liberals have time and again attacked the sugar tariff as oppressive and unfair, as an instrument, in fact, by means of which the refiners are able to extort improper gains from the pockets of the people. For this they have as usual, been called enemies of the country by the Tory patriots who profess to look upon high taxation as an economic panacea. Under the old tariff there was a duty on raw sugar and a higher one on the refined article, the margin being sufficient to allow of enormous profits being made by the refiners, who were quite willing in turn to extend to the Tory government at the elections material and moral support. When the McKinley tariff in the States placed raw sugar on the free list and lowered the duty on refined sugar, the Canadian government was compelled to follow suit, as otherwise a very large premium would have been put upon smuggling. The ministers, however, took good care of their friends the refiners. While placing on the free list sugar below 14 Dutch standard they left on all grades above that a duty of four-fifths of a cent per pount. The McKinley tariff, on the other hand, lets in free all sugars up to 16 Dutch standard, while grades above that standard are taxed only half a cent per pound. When Mr. Paterson of Brant offered an amendment in the Commons changing the Canadian tariff to the same level as that of the States, the proposal was voted down by the Tory majority, who would not admit that Mr. Foster was allowing the refiners an opportunity to fleece the people under cover of the margin of duty The Liberal contention is now endorsed by no less an authority than the Canadian Manufacturer, the organ of the Manufacturers' Association, and an uncompromising advocate of high taxation generally. Following are extracts from the Manufacturer's comments:—

In 1889 the consumption of sugar in Canada reached the enormous amount of 228,841,171 pounds, or in round numbers, about 112,000 tons. If this quantity of sugar were refined in the United States the protection upon it there would be, at $10 per ton, $1,120,000, representing what the refiners would obtain for their services. But being refined in Canada, the protection now offered by Mr. Foster would be, at $16 per ton, $1,792,000, or $672,000 more than the American refiners under the McKinley tariff would receive for the same service.

Allowing that, as in the case of the American refineries, a duty of $10 per ton is sufficient to maintain the industry, afford fair remuneration for capital invested, and guarantee employment to labor, we find that the higher Canadian duty of $16 per ton represents an opportunity to the Canadian refiners to further benefit themselves to the extent of $720,000 per year. This is not according to the ethics of protection.

In summing up, we are forced to the conclusion that, as regards the sugar refining industry as it existed in Canada up to the recent change in the tariff, the duty in its favor was not offset by any benefit bestowed upon the people by it; that it did not furnish its refined sugar at or near the difference between the cost of production and the cost of laying down a foreign sugar; that the tariff was a bonanza to the refiners; that it enabled them to exact more than a fair profit for their services; that they were extortioners, and that through the tariff they became millionaires. In these respects the tariff proved to be what it should not be, and produced most injurious results. Was it a realization of these facts that induced the Government to put low grade refining sugars upon the free list? If it was, surely they must have discovered the facts here pointed out, and also have considered the other fact that the new duty upon refined sugars is so high that even now the refiners have the opportunity of exacting hundreds of thousands of dollars out of consumers over and above a fair profit for their services; and we insist that these blemishes upon the national policy must be removed.

It is interesting to see the organ of the red parlor thus laboring to convince the Tory Government that they have gone too far in their protectionist paternalism. Let the Manufacturer take care that its teachings do not go further than it intends and open the people's eyes to the folly of "protection" in general.

MERCIER'S CASE.

It is quite evident that the action of Premier Abbott in laying before the Senate Lieut.-Governor Angers' letter to Premier Mercier on the Pacaud scandal committed a grave blunder. The communication was a private one, with which the Dominion Parliament had nothing to do, Mr. Angers having apparently forwarded a copy to the Governor-General merely for his private information. It was this copy that Mr. Abbott laid before the Senate, his action being thus an unwarrantable interference with Quebec local affairs. The constitutional question raised by this attack on the rights of the province has drawn public attention away from the original scandal and given the wily Quebec premier a strong weapon to fight with. Premier Abbott quickly found out his mistake, for when asked in regard to Mercier's reply to Lieut.-Governor Angers' letter he expressed doubts as to the propriety of submitting it to the Senate As Mercier now insists that his reply be given to Parliament it is difficult to see why the Dominion Premier should further hesitate. The raising of the constitutional issue and Mercier's consent to the appointment of an investigating commission have distinctly improved the Quebec Premier's position before the public.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

An Ottawa despatch says that Premier Abbott has declined the offer of the Conservative candidature in Kingston, which "indicates that he has no intention of entering the lower house." Very likely. Mr. Abbott is not lacking in shrewdness, and he therefore knows that a bird in the hand is worth a good many in the bush.

Toronto Telegram (Independent):—There was never a murderer or a thief bad enough to be convicted if his judges twisted the evidence as the evidence has been twisted by a majority of the sub-committee in the McGreevy case. The same determination to see only one side of the testimony, the same stubborn contempt for circumstantial evidence, would enable the biggest scoundrel that ever walked to go free. The majority report is not just. Its unmerciful condemnation of McGreevy and Perley is robbed of all force by a lamentable failure to deal out to Sir Hector Langevin the condemnation he deserves.

Chicago Times:—A. Senecal, late of Canada, has done this country the honor to choose it as his place of residence. Mr. Senecal has come to us alone, but the suggestive fact that his orders for material were not indorsed by the member of the ministry having power until the contracting firm had made a little contribution of $1500 to the secretary of the Conservative campaign committee seems to indicate that he should have had a traveling companion. The question arises, however, whether we do wisely to allow these eminent statesmen to come here to compete with our Quays and our Dudleys, whom we have built up in business at great expense to the nation.

The St. John, N. B., Telegraph furnishes statistics which show that in 40 years the population of that city has increased only 8000; that the imports for 1890-91 were $275,000 less than they were in 1851, while the exports were only $85,000 greater. The duty paid in 1857 was only 6 per cent., while in 1890 it was 22 per cent. The Telegraph thus comments: "Is it not a fair inference that the nearly quadrupled taxes on our trade have been the cause why our trade has not grown? And also that the same cause which has prevented the growth of trade has prevented the growth of population? And would the Liberal policy of reciprocity lightening the burdens of trade give impetus to both trade and population

Col. Prior was at the Toronto fair and was one of those entertained at the directors' luncheon one day last week. He seems to have made quite an impression, for the Empire styles him "Victoria's Eloquent Member." The following is his speech as reported by the Empire:

Col. Prior, who was received with loud cheers, said he had no right to be called upon when he saw around him gentlemen distinguished in finance, commerce and agriculture, compared to whom he was very small potatoes. He was reminded of an incident that happened to a gentleman of Vancouver Island who went over some years ago with the Wimbledon team to England. The Prince of Wales was inspecting the team and asked the gentleman from Vancouver Island to step forward. "O, I expected to see a black man," said the prince disappointedly. To-day he felt like the black man. (Laughter.) He must congratulate them on the success of the Fair, coming as he did from a grand young country rich in every resource, he could appreciate the fullness and completeness of everything he saw around him. (Applause.)

That was a very eloquent speech indeed. We should like to know, however, whether the gallant colonel, in comparing himself to a blackman, had in mind the ordinary colored gentleman or the Ethiopian whose permanent residence is said to be in the woodpile.

The Victorian Arrives.

The Union Pacific Railway Company's steamer Victorian, which has been in the work shop on the Sound, arrived this morning in place of the Olympian and will now start running regularly. She will run on the Olympian's old time until Sunday when she will take the same schedule as the Kingston, leaving here at 8:30 in the evening and returning at 4 the next afternoon. Capt. A Uniform Band.

Prof. Walcott, who has got the contract for supplying music for the firemen's tournament will bring a uniform band over from Seattle with him. The first cornet will be played by the celebrated boy cornet player of America. Mr. Walcott intends to remain in Victoria and organize a uniform band, something badly needed in this city. The Fox Case Again.

The case of Arthur Fox, charged by his wife with taking things belonging to her while she was away, came up in the Police Court this morning. Mr. Eberts submitted that a man could not steal the property of his wife. The counsel for the prosecutrix, on the other hand, submitted that theft could be committed when the husband and wife were not cohabiting. The case was remanded for a week so that a civil case now pending as to whom the property belongs to is settled. The defendant was allowed out without bail.

An Electric Elevator.

The first electric elevator ever used in British Columbia has just been put in E. G. Prior & Co.'s hardware store. The elevator was built by Leitch & Turnbull, of Hamilton, Ont., and placed in position by Mr. Elford. It works to perfection, lifting over a ton from the basement to the third story in less than a minute. The current is supplied by the tramway company. It is claimed that the first cost is less than a hydraulic elevator, with less for upkeep and quicker action. All these advantages combined should make the electric elevator a favorite.

The Ocean Belle Arrives.

The sealing schooner Ocean Belle, Capt. O'Leary arrived this morning from the North Pacific Ocean, with 1170 skins. She was with the party of schooners that were warned by the Cutter Thetis on the 28th of June, not to enter Behring sea. Captain O'Leary therefore steered for the Russian coast where he succeeded in getting the skins he brought home. The schooner Maud S was spoken August 8th with 400 skins. Nothing was heard of the McLean Bros., and their schooners. The Penelope was seen on the Russian coast, but not spoken. She was 24 days coming down.

Increased Activity in Another Feature.

The operations begun at Mount Tolmie still continue, and the houses, six in number are now well advanced, every day visitors are on the ground and express delight at the property, its surroundings and the enterprise exhibited.

This morning work was commenced upon a huge toboggan slide, which descends from Mount Tolmie, and this will be a source of amusement to the people of Victoria, and being as it is the first toboggan slide of this description on the continent of America, many visitors from our neighboring towns will visit us to take it in.

The promoters of the Mount Tolmie Building Association are leaving no stone unturned in this enterprise, and it is no wonder that they are meeting with so much success.

Exhibition Notes.

Mr. E. B. Marvin has signified his intention of presenting the B. C. Agricultural Association with a large Canadian flag for the central tower of the crystal palace which is now about completed. The flag will arrive from the east in time for the exhibition. Mr. Marvin's generosity is most commendable.

An army of men—carpenters, painters, tinners and laborers—is at work at the exhibition grounds, and everything is certain to be in readiness for the opening next week.

The exhibition building is the finest in Canada west of Ontario, and there are not more than half a dozen in all Canada that are superior to it.

The view from one of the half dozen towers, to which circular stairs lead, is extremely beautiful. There is nothing finer to be seen anywhere.

A Bunch of Drunks.

There was a dock full of prisoners to greet His Honor in the City Police Court this morning, ten in number, all charged with an offence with which whiskey was connected. Eight of the prisoners were Indians who, having recently returned from the hop fields, turned their cash into whiskey and got hilariously drunk. Among the number was the notorious Jimmy Chickens, who with six others pleaded guilty to being drunk, and paid a fine of $5 and costs, or in default ten days in the common jail at hard labor. One of the Indian prisoners, who had only been released from jail a few days before, was fined $7, and another Indian, charged with having a bottle of whiskey in his possession, pleaded guilty, and was fined $25, or in default two months at hard labor. Jos. Lester, charged with supplying the liquor to the Indian, also pleaded guilty, and was ordered to pay a fine of $100, or in default three months in the common jail. A charge of drunkenness against one of the Indians was withdrawn.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

MERRY WEDDING BELLS.

THE NUPTIALS OF MISS DUNSMUIR AND SIR R. MUSGRAVE.

The Most Fashionable and Brilliant Wedding of the Season—The Scene at Christ Church Cathedral This Afternoon—List of Presents.

Glorious Victoria weather marked the day on which Miss Jessie Dunsmuir, youngest daughter of the late Hon. Robert Dunsmuir and Mrs. Dunsmuir, entered the matrimonial state. If the old saying, "Happy is the bride the sun shines on," be true, Miss Dunsmuir, as Lady Musgrave, has entered upon a career of unalloyed happiness, her path strewn with roses of peacefulness without a thorn of trouble or trial. The event which occurred to-day at Christ Church Cathedral is looked upon as the most fashionably and brilliantly celebrated nuptials, not only of the present, but of many seasons. The chancel of the cathedral seemed like a conservatory, so great was the profusion and wealth of the floral decorations, while a pathway of evergreens led from the communion rails to the vestry. Soft yielding carpets marked the way from the carriage to the altar where two were made one. To say that the ceremony was witnessed by a numerous gathering would be putting it very mildly. The youth and beauty, wealth and fashion of Victoria and vicinity were there, all deeply interested spectators of a service which seems to have an indefinable attraction, particularly for the ladies. Among the principal guests of the family present at the church, Mrs. Bryden wore a handsome brown brocaded silk dress, trimmed with gold and pearl embroidery, with bonnet to match; Mrs. James Dunsmuir wore a black lace over pink silk lace and jet mantle, with bonnet to match; Mrs. Colonel Prior wore a brown silk velvet trimmed, with handsome passementerie; Mrs. Dr. Hanington wore a grey silk trimmed with white chiffon; Mrs. W. C. Ward wore a grey and blue striped silk. There were many other handsome costumes.

The bridegroom appeared at the appointed time, attended by Lieutenant Musgrave and Mr. H. A. Barton. Sir Richard John Musgrave is the fifth baronet, the honor having been conferred on one of his ancestors in 1782, 109 years ago. By his mother's side Sir Richard is connected with a great number of the most eminent men of the political dissenters of the north of England, men who have made the Nonconformist opinion felt in the legislature and the nation.

A flutter, that flutter which says unmistakably "Here they come," is felt among the assembled ladies, and a ray of white appears at the entrance to the cathedral. The bride is blushingly led up the aisle, looking lovely in her bridal costume of a white satin skirt, with costly Brussels point lace, in cascades of flounces. This was the gift of her mother. A full length court train of brocaded satin adorns the skirt in the pattern of the Prince of Wales' feathers. It is beautifully executed. The bodice is very simple, brocaded, and trimmed with rich Brussels lace. Over the whole falls a chaste veil of Brussels net, thus making up a costume of unexceptional beauty. Of ornaments, the bride has shown extreme taste not to make too much display. But what she wears is of great value and beauty. A glittering diamond crescent adorns her hair, and as lovely a star, made of diamonds, is fastened at her throat. The former is the gift of the bridegroom, and the latter was presented by the bride's brother.

The bride's train is borne by two pretty little ladies, the Misses May and Bessie Dunsmuir.

The bridesmaids are Miss Effie Dunsmuir, Miss Maud Dunsmuir, Miss Musgrave, Miss Harvey, Miss Birdie Dunsmuir, Miss Tootsie Ward, Miss Eleanor Dunsmuir and Miss Olive Bryden, who made a pretty procession as they attended the bride to the altar, where she was met by her husband elect. The costumes of the bridesmaids are all similar, and their sweet simplicity forms their chief beauty. It is a Charlotte Corday, comprising a skirt of white muslin, gracefully draped with Valenciennes lace over white satin. The basque is the same as the dress with a brocaded silk sash. All wore tan colored shoes.

Rev. Arthur Beanlands tied the mystic knot, and the newly wedded couple repaired to the vestry, where the life-long contract was signed and witnessed. Then amid the strains of the wedding march the happy couple wended their way out to the carriage, their path being strewn with flowers scattered by little girls in white sitting along the aisles. The bells burst out their merry ding dong, and the carriages roll away towards the baronial home of the bride, where friends and relatives rejoice over the happy occasion.

After the wedding repast, the newly wedded pair will board the Lorne, which awaits them at the outer dock, and will proceed to Vancouver, where a private car is at their disposal, in which to cross the continent. The Lorne has been made to look gay with flags and bunting.

Among the presents were: An emerald diamond ring from Mrs. Dunsmuir; a bracelet of diamonds, rubies and sapphires, and a check from the Misses Dunsmuir; Lady Musgrave, a bracelet of rubies and moonstones; Mr. James Dunsmuir, a lovely medallion set with diamonds; Mr. A. Dunsmuir, a costly diamond star; Mr. and Mrs. Bryden, a check; Col. and Mrs. Houghton, sapphire and diamond ring; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Croft, dressing case; Mr. and Mrs. Snowden, check; Miss Effie Dunsmuir, Miss M. Dunsmuir and Miss Harvey, silver prayer book; Sir Joseph and Lady Trutch, Indian cashmere shawl; Mrs. O'Reilly, check; Hon. Mr. Justice and Mrs. Crease, handsome Indian embroidery work; Hon. Mr. Justice and Mrs. Walkem, Japanese work; Mr. D. Boscowitz, handsome silver mounted carving set in morocco case; Dr. and Mrs. Hennington, Benares jar; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Musgrave, silver sugar basin and cream jug; Mr. J. W. Powell, silver puff box and brushes; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vernon, Japanese ivory dagger and tray; Captain Langton, opera set; Hon. Stanhope silver hairpin tray; Mr. Justice and Mrs. Drake, silver kettle on stand; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ward, preserve dish; Mr. and Mrs. Baillie-Grohman, inkstand; Mrs. Harris, bracelet of Oriental pattern; Mr. and Mrs. John Trutch, silver basket; Mr. and Mrs. Tye, silver salt cellars and spoons; Mrs. Barnard, a heart-shaped silver vinaigrette; Miss Freer, silver vinaigrette; Miss Abbott, silver card case; Mrs. Powell, set of teaspoons; Miss Dupont, silver bonbonniere; Miss Langley, silver candlestick; Miss K. Langley, Japanese draping; Mr. and Mrs. Milligan, opera glasses; Mrs. Finlayson, ivory card case; Mrs Dumbleton, Indian silver pepper box; Miss Charles, tea cosy; Miss Ward, silver glove stretcher; Miss Innes, silver shoe horn; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pinder, silver cream jug; Mrs. Prior, bracelet; Miss Foster, Potpourri jar; Miss Powell, confectionery dish; the Misses Jenns, teaspoons; Mr. Barton, silver flasks; Mr. A. Newton, moonstone bracelet; Mr. and Mrs. Holland, Japanese bracket; Captain and Mrs. Irving, very large gold nugget in case; Mr. Luxton, gold and pearl brooch; Mr. and Mrs. Rithet, silver decanter stand.

These are not all the presents; a great number have been ordered from England, but had not arrived at the time of the wedding.

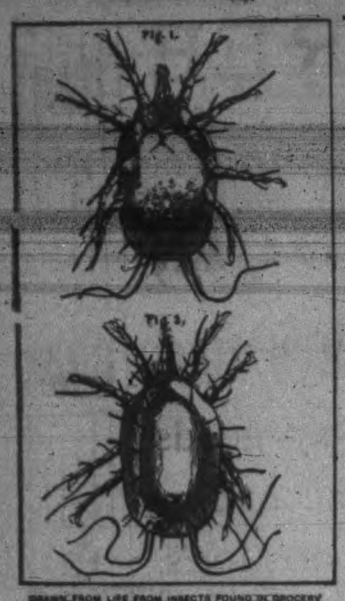
CHINESE - SUGARS; - WHAT - IT - IS - WE - MAY - BE - EATING!



DRAWN FROM LIFE FROM INSECTS FOUND IN GROCERY

In view of the introduction to the Province recently of considerable quantities of Chinese Sugars, it may be as well that the Public should be informed, on the very highest possible authority, of the danger that may be attendant upon their use.

Professor Cameron, Public Analyst, Dublin, a gentleman who has made it his special business to examine all kinds of Foreign Sugars, Refined and other, says that certain kinds of them should never be used. He states that they contain great numbers of DISGUSTING INSECTS, which produce a DISGUSTING DISEASE. Their shape is very accurately shown in the accompanying cut, which is magnified two hundred diameters. Figure 1 is the under side, and Figure 2 the upper. The Professor's description is as follows:—

"This insect ('the Acarus Sacchari') is a formidably organized, exceedingly lively, and decidedly ugly little animal. From its oval-shaped body stretches forth a proboscis terminating in a kind of scissors, with which it seizes its food. Its organs of locomotion consist of eight legs, each jointed and furnished at its extremity with a hook. In the Sugar its movements from one place to another are necessarily very slow, but when placed on a perfectly clean and dry surface, it moves along with great rapidity." He adds that the number of "Acari' found in Unrefined Sugar is "sometimes exceedingly great, and in no instance is the article quite free from either the insects or their eggs." He further says:—"The Acari Sacchari" do not occur in Refined Sugar of any quality, because they cannot pass through the charcoal filters of the Refinery, and because Refined Sugar does not contain any nitrogenous substance upon which they can feed."

COOLIE - MADE - AND - ALL - UNREFINED - SUGARS - SHOULD - NEVER - BE - USED!

Besides its being impossible for Canadian Labor to compete with Coolie Labor, rice fed and under paid, it is well known that Eastern Countries have always been the breeding ground for leprosy and all other loathsome and horrible human diseases, and hand labor there is so cheap that there is no inducement to employ machinery. Home Refined Sugar, on the contrary, is never touched by the human hand from the moment it reaches the refiner until it leaves him a perfectly safe and purified article.

Use, therefore, Only Home Refined Sugars; They Are Absolutely Unadulterated, Pure and Cheap.

THE I. O. O. F.

Meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge at St. Louis—Large Attendance.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 23.—The seventy-second conclave of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I.O.O.F., opened here on Monday. It is estimated that over 50,000 Odd Fellows and their families are in the city, besides many thousands of others who came simply as spectators. Everywhere and in all directions could be seen the uniforms and regalias of the lodges.

Thousands of citizens and visitors lined the sidewalks and filled every available space, and it was with great difficulty that an opening could be made through the wall of humanity that literally packed the streets. The line of march was through the principal streets to the Exposition building, in which were conducted the exercises of welcome. These consisted of cordial addresses by Governor Francis on behalf of the State; Mayor Noonan on behalf of the city, Rev. B. J. Jewell, Grand Master and Grand Patriarch, on behalf of the order, and the replies by the deputy grand sire and others. At Twelfth and Olive streets the parade was reviewed from a stand erected at that point. On the stand were Lieutenant-General John C. Underwood and staff, many of the grand officers, Governor Francis, Mayor Noonan, the city fathers, the president of the board of education, three division commanders, and Mrs. Rea, president of the annual session of the Daughters of Rebekah.

The seventy-second Grand Encampment of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O.O.F., was opened by Deputy Grand Sire C. T. Campbell.

Grand Treasurer Isaac A. Shepherd, of Philadelphia, reported the financial status of the order, and, commenting upon the figures, said they showed an increase in receipts. The number of initiations last year is shown to be 68,-060. The total membership at present 672,339.

The revenue for 1890 91 was $72,244,-274. The pecuniary benevolence distributed was $4,000,000.

"Deacon" White Falls.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The announcement of the assignment and suspension of S. V. White & Co., of New York and Chicago, was made on the Stock Exchange this morning. White says the failure is due to "long" speculation in corn, and not in stocks. The liabilities of the firm are very large, but only a few hundred shares of stock are outstanding on contracts. No estimate can be given yet. The failure caused but little excitement on the produce exchange, for the reason that but few of its members are interested in the deal. It is stated it will affect Chicago principally. The price of corn dropped 1½ cents at the news of the failure. The office of the firm, after the announcement of the suspension, was crowded with bankers, brokers and reporters, all trying to get some information regarding the failure. The firm, however, had no formal statement to make. It was noted that for some time it had been preparing to meet the disaster which was seen to be inevitable, when the heavy deliveries of corn began to pour in, and for some days the firm has declined to take any large deposits. Before the formal announcement was made here that the firm had gone under, commission brokers advised their customers to be prepared for it.

The advice started heavy liquidation, and caused the first genuine reaction that occurred in the stock market for six weeks, but Lackawanna, which always has been considered under White's influence, declined only 1 per cent. Fears were expressed on many sides that other houses would be involved, but members of the embarrassed firm say no other firm was involved with them. The members of the New York house are S. V. White and Franklin W. Hopkins.

The First Victim.

WICHITA, Sept. 22.—The first victim to suffer at the hands of the boomers is Al Glazier, an Atcheson & Santa Fe conductor, who was badly cut and otherwise injured by an enraged mob on his train. Some of the boomers had no tickets, and Glazier demanded the extra 10 cents levied in such cases. This caused the trouble. A number of rioters were arrested and are in jail.

THE DISTRICT TELEGRAPH.

For Fire and Police Protection---Sending for the Doctor in a Hurry.

The new British Columbia & Delivery Co., will complete wiring the city this week, but if any houses have been missed, Mr. Steward, the manager, will have the wires put in as soon as notified.

Asked if it was the intention of the company to put the service in private residences, Mr. Steward said: We charge private residences one dollar per month, and a great many are availing themselves of the cheap service for fire and police protection. A resident can call out the fire department, and have them on the spot, long before he could hunt up a Gamewell box and turn in the alarm; and as for police protection for private families, it must fill a long felt want. We turn in the fire alarm instantly, by special automatic connection with the fire halls. It only takes 27 seconds from the time a fire alarm is turned in from our boxes until the fire department are on the jump.

A HORRIBLE CRIME.

A Port Angeles Man Kills His Wife and Then Himself---A Nephew Arrested.

A shocking case of murder and suicide occurred at Port Angeles on Monday evening about 6:30. A. W. Schultze and his wife had been quarreling for the last year or two, and the tragedy does not come as a surprise. Some months ago Mrs. Schultze brought a nephew to the house, a young man about 25 years old, and his presence increased the bad feeling between the Schultzes. Of late Schultze had been drinking considerably, and on Saturday last he lost his position as watchman at the Puget Sound mill, and it is conjectured that he was greatly depressed by his misfortune and family troubles. About 6 o'clock the nephew called at a neighbor's house and requested him to go over to Schultze's and get his coat and hat, saying that he had had trouble with the old man and was afraid to go back. His request was refused, and after remaining there about half an hour he went to another neighbor's and was again unsuccessful. However, the third neighbor approached consented to accompany him. They started to the house, but found it in darkness. The front door was open but nothing could be seen. A lantern was secured from an out-house and lighted, and the two entered the house.

They heard a moan in the bedroom, and opening the door, they saw the bodies of Schultze and his wife. Mrs. Schultze's body was lying in a closet, doubled up, and Schultze was lying on the opposite side of the room with a revolver within a few feet of his right hand. Mrs. Schultze was lifted into the room and it was seen that she had been shot in the forehead. She was not yet dead, and the two men started for assistance. The coroner was the first person seen, and they got back to the house in fifteen minutes. Mrs. Schultze was still alive, but died shortly after they entered the room. The ball that killed Schultze entered his head just back of the right ear. The general supposition is that Schultze first shot his wife and then committed suicide.

Earnest Paritz, a nephew of Schultze, who is generally known to have been criminally intimate with Mrs. Schultze, has been held pending an investigation. Paritz was in the house just before the shooting. Some persons suspect him of double murder, while others think that Schultze, in a fit of jealousy, killed his wife and then committed suicide.

CROSSED THE STRAITS ON A LOG.

Three British Deserters Escape by a Nervy and Desperate Feat.

The Post-Intelligencer says: Three men-of-war's men, Fred Murray, Harry Russell and William Brown, deserted from H. M. S. Warspite on Wednesday at Esquimalt and succeeded, after passing through a terrible ordeal, in reaching a place from which the British authorities cannot take them by recapture. They are now employed on a farm near Friday harbor. When the men first left the Warspite they employed an Indian to ferry them across the straits in a canoe, giving him $20 for the work, but the ferryman was dishonest enough to try to take them in the direction of the mainland in the hope of getting the reward of $10 that is offered by British authorities for the betrayal of a deserter. Guessing the Indian's intention to turn traitor, the trio overpowered him and landed themselves near an Indian camp, still on the coast of British Columbia. The Indians on shore had in the meantime told the story of the flight to the officers of the Warspite. A detachment of marines went down to the beach and came up just in time to see the deserters landing the canoe. The marines gave chase. The deserters fled down the heads. Coming to a heavy timber, six inches by twelve, and twenty feet long, they launched it, and sitting astride paddled as quickly as possible into the darkness that just then came on. The marines were forced to abandon the pursuit for want of a boat of any kind. The men paddled all night up to their waists in water. Once Murray fell, through sheer exhaustion, and was rescued with difficulty by his mates. A landing on San Juan island was made at daybreak. When the men partially recovered from the effects of their strange voyage they got some dried salmon at an Indian camp, and went to Friday Harbor, where some friends of Brown's helped them to get employment. All the men are well-connected and sons of wealthy families in England. Harry Russell is a cousin of Sir Charles Russell, ex-attorney general. Murray's father has been a member of parliament and is still popular in politics in England. They are out of the reach of the English authorities and the crime of desertion is not included in the extradition treaty.

Mothers

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. JENKINS, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BEGOLE, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out

"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. PHEBE MOSHER, 90 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

COAL

The New Vancouver Coal Mining & Land Co., L'd.

(FORMERLY THE VANCOUVER COAL CO.)

ARE THE LARGEST COAL PRODUCERS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE NANAIMO COAL (Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes).

THE SOUTH FIELD COAL (Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL

House and Steam Coal are mined by this Company only.

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, a high Illuminating Power unequalled by any other bituminous Gas Coal in the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used by all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL, which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay, where ships of the largest tonnage loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

THE THIRD EMPRESS ARRIVES.

She Makes a Longer Trip Than Her Sister Boats.

The C P.R. steamship Empress of China, although it was reported she had passed Cape Beale yesterday morning, did not arrive off the outer dock until 1.30 this morning when the noise made by her syren woke up the whole town. She did not make as fast a trip across as her sister boats having had continual bad weather. The trip from Yokohama was made in 12 days and 2 hours.

She had 168 passengers in all, 104 of this number being Chinese. Four cabin passengers and 92 Chinese for this port were brought in by the steamer Standard along with the mails. The four cabin passengers took the steamer Victorian this morning for the Sound. Her freight consists of 2000 tons, Victoria's share as usual being taken to Vancouver to be transhipped.

CRICKET.

STANDING OF ENGLISH COUNTIES.

The English county season closed with the teams in the following order:

	Won	Lost	Drawn
Surrey	12	2	2
Lancashire	8	4	3
Middlesex	8	5	3
Notts	5	4	5
Somersetshire	5	6	1
Kent	4	5	6
Sussex	4	7	3
Yorkshire	5	10	1
Gloucerstershire	2	13	4

Abel (Surrey) heads the batting with an average of 43 and a fraction, Gunn (Nottingham) being second also with 43 and a small fraction, Shrewsbury (Nottingham) third with 41.15.

H. O'Brien (Middlesex) heads the amateurs with 33.6. W. G. Grace being away down with 16.2.

Lohmann (Surrey) and Harve (Middlesex) are very close, each with an average of just over 10 runs per wicket, with the former slightly the better fraction and 132 wickets to 118 for the latter.

Neold (Lancashire) is third with 112 wickets for an average of 12.

Lohmann is on this year's form conceded to be the foremost all-round cricketer of the day, as in addition to his grand bowling he is a phenomenally fine field and has a batting average of 26.7.

Somerset justified its inclusion in first-class cricket and enjoyed the proud distinction of being one of the two counties which succeeded in defeating Surrey, Middlesex being the other.

A Rich Placer Mine Sold.

CLE-ELUM, Wash., Sept. 21.—The Black placer claim, the most valuable in the Swauk mining district, was today sold to Port Townsend parties represented by Leslie Collins and E. S. Campbell. The property has yielded from $5000 to $12,000 yearly for the old sluice plan for the past twelve years. All the modern placer mining methods will at once be introduced.

Twenty Horses Burned.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—A grain and feed establishment on the west side was burned last night, and 20 horses, stabled in the basement, perished in the flames. The loss is estimated at $20,000.

A thousand scholars attend that famous English collection of schools which constitute what is popularly known as Eton.
